NO NATIONS ARE FAVORED.

The Weak and the Strong Stand on an Equal Footing in the Estimation of the United States Government.

Washington, May 7.—A rosebush in full bloom, towering five feet above the heads of senators, sat on the desk of Senator Deboe of Kentucky, and entwined with large cabbage roses was a red, white and blue scarf, ten feet long and a foot wide, bearing the inscription in gold letters, "United we stand, divided we fall."

Among the bills favorably reported were those for public buildings at Indianapolis, to cost $2,000,000, and at Abilene, Kan., to cost $100,000.

As a sequel to the defeat of the Anglo-American treaty of arbitration Mr. Bacon of Georgia introduced the following joint resolution, deprecating war and announcing the policy of the government favorable to arbitration:

"Resolved, That the United States of America deprecate war and desire the maintenance of peace and friendship with all the world, and this desire is not limited to their relations with any one nation, but extends to their relations with all the nations of the earth, whether the same be great or small, strong or weak."

"That to the end that these relations of peace and amity now happily existing between them and all nations may be perpetually preserved, and that wars may be discouraged, and as far as practicable made impossible, the United States favor the principle and practice of international arbitration for the settlement of questions in differences between them and any other nation which they may fail to adjust by treaty or diplomatic negotiation."

"That the United States do hereby avow it as their future policy and intention, whenever there shall arise any question in difference between them and any other nation which they may fail to adjust by treaty or diplomatic negotiation, that they shall and will, so far as they can consistently with the national honor, the integrity of their territory and their foreign and domestic policy, submit such question in difference to the arbitrament and final decision of an international court of arbitration. Such court of arbitration shall, in the future as in the past, be constituted by agreement between the parties consenting thereto, with special reference and adaptation to the particular question in difference and to the conditions then existing."

"That the United States hereby invite all civilized nations to make a corresponding and reciprocal declaration to the end that wars between nations may cease, and that an universal reign of peace may be inaugurated and perpetually maintained."

The sundry civil bill was taken up and consideration of the Pettigrew amendment suspending President Cleveland's forest reserve order resumed. ## VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY.

Search Being Made For an Island In the Pacific Ocean.

IT LIES NEAR THE EQUATOR.

A Great Many Years Ago It Was Sighted by an Englishman, but Since That Time No One Has Been Able to Locate It.

San Francisco, May 7.—The schooner Louisa D. cleared for a cruise to New Baldado island. Her trip promises to be a long and romantic one, and before she comes back her crew expects that the American flag will be floating over a little reef close to the equator that no man or nation has claimed.

New Baldado is the name given to the island, but so far the most accurate location that can be given for it is that it is in the north Pacific ocean. The island is said to be covered with an enormous and wonderful deposit of guano, and for nearly 50 years numerous vessels have started out in search of it, but they have always returned without being able to give its location.

It was first reported as being in existence by Lord Clipperton, an eccentric English navigator, naturalist and discoverer, and the man who gave his name to Clipperton island. He said in his report of his cruises that the island lay approximately in north latitude 16 degrees and west longitude 137, but is described as low, and navigators say a vessel could sail within a dozen miles of it and pass by without seeing it.

That part of the ocean is out of the track of vessels plying between regular open ports, and should the island exist it could only be found by much diligent search for it. This is the object of the Louisa D. She is being dispatched by the Ocean. Phosphate company. Captain F. Errat will command her, and he says he will not come back until he finds the island.

JAPANESE WARSHIP

On Her Way to Honolulu For a Desperately Bold Purpose.

San Francisco, May 7.—The steamer Alameda, from Honolulu, brings the news that the Australian brought from the Hawaiian minister at Tokyo advises informing his government that the warship Naniwa was on her way to Honolulu with a Japanese commissioner on board to investigate the cases of Japanese immigrants who were recently denied landing by the Hawaiian government.

Japanese, now in quarantine, were to have been liberated April 28, but a case of smallpox will keep the men in confinement for 18 days more.

The Hawaiian cabinet has decided after many conferences on the labor question that Asiatic laborers must sooner or later be replaced by Americans, and the sooner such work is commenced the better it will be for the islands. How to apply a remedy was next discussed.

The government decided it necessary to open a labor bureau under government auspices, planters defraying the expenses, as no public funds are available for the purpose.

Wrecked at Sea.

Port Louis, Island of Mauritius, May 7.—The British ship Traveler, Captain Christie, from Senebaya for Delawares breakwater, was wrecked off the island of Rodriguez, 330 miles east-northeast of Mauritius, on Feb. 4, and the news has but just reached here. Her hull materials were lost, but 300 tons of the cargo were saved. Captain Christie, his first officer and 14 of the crew died at sea of fever.

Gillespie was a young man and had not been living very pleasantly with his wife. A quarrel arose between them, and the wife struck the husband in the head with a blacksmith hammer, crushing his skull, from which he died in a few hours.

San Francisco, May 7.—The schooner Louisa D. cleared for a cruise to New Baldado island. Her trip promises to be a long and romantic one, and before she comes back her crew expects that the American flag will be floating over a little reef close to the equator that no man or nation has claimed.

New Baldado is the name given to the island, but so far the most accurate location that can be given for it is that it is in the north Pacific ocean. The island is said to be covered with an enormous and wonderful deposit of guano, and for nearly 50 years numerous vessels have started out in search of it, but they have always returned without being able to give its location.

It was first reported as being in existence by Lord Clipperton, an eccentric English navigator, naturalist and discoverer, and the man who gave his name to Clipperton island. He said in his report of his cruises that the island lay approximately in north latitude 16 degrees and west longitude 137, but is described as low, and navigators say a vessel could sail within a dozen miles of it and pass by without seeing it.

That part of the ocean is out of the track of vessels plying between regular open ports, and should the island exist it could only be found by much diligent search for it. This is the object of the Louisa D. She is being dispatched by the Ocean. Phosphate company. Captain F. Errat will command her, and he says he will not come back until he finds the island.

JAPANESE WARSHIP

On Her Way to Honolulu For a Desperately Bold Purpose.

San Francisco, May 7.—The steamer Alameda, from Honolulu, brings the news that the Australian minister at Tokyo advises informing his government that the warship Naniwa was on her way to Honolulu with a Japanese commissioner on board to investigate the cases of Japanese immigrants who were recently denied landing by the Hawaiian government.

Japanese, now in quarantine, were to have been liberated April 28, but a case of smallpox will keep the men in confinement for 18 days more.

The Hawaiian cabinet has decided after many conferences on the labor question that Asiatic laborers must sooner or later be replaced by Americans, and the sooner such work is commenced the better it will be for the islands. How to apply a remedy was next discussed.

The government decided it necessary to open a labor bureau under government auspices, planters defraying the expenses, as no public funds are available for the purpose.

Wrecked at Sea.

Port Louis, Island of Mauritius, May 7.—The British ship Traveler, Captain Christie, from Senebaya for Delaware breakwater, was wrecked off the island of Rodriguez, 330 miles east-northeast of Mauritius, on Feb. 4, and the news has but just reached here. Her hull materials were lost, but 300 tons of the cargo were saved. Captain Christie, his first officer and 14 of the crew died at sea of fever.

Gillespie was a young man and had not been living very pleasantly with his wife. A quarrel arose between them, and the wife struck the husband in the head with a blacksmith hammer, crushing his skull, from which he died in a few hours.

Didn't Hide Her Shame.

For the first time in several years Cleveland and Pittsburg trainmen find there are not enough of them to handle the freight passing over the line.

The crews in the yards are finding it a task most arduous to take out trains, and during the week some men have had a hard time. When some of the boys came on duty last night it was only with difficulty they could open their eyes, and it was plainly seen that they had lost so much sleep as to render them unfit for work. Many of them had been at work almost continuously for several days and nights, and the situation was appreciated at a glance. The men most in need of rest were sent home to sleep. The freight traffic seems to be increasing, and yard officials are busy all the time in keeping it moving along the line.

IT WILL BE A SIGNAL CORPS

The Sons of Veterans Will Likely Be Connected With the Guard—Thought Once of Forming a Battery. But They Could Not Get the Guns.

The Sons of Veterans are arranging to organize a signal corps, and become a part of the First regiment, Sons of Veterans Guard.

The movement originated some time ago when a communication was sent to Colonel Buckland, of Freemont. The gentleman commands the First, and while he sits on the circuit bench the greater part of the time is an enthusiastic officer. He at once endorsed the plan, and sent many valuable hints to East Liverpool urging the young men to organize and drill in time to become a part of the regiment before the encampment. At first the idea was suggested that a battery be formed, but a count of noses developed that there were not enough members. Then it was thought that one section could be formed here and another in Lisbon, but that also was abandoned because of the cost of equipment. The scheme to form an infantry company was abandoned because of the number, although this could have been carried out without a great outlay as the camp is already fully equipped for that branch of the service. At length a signal corps was suggested, and there is every reason to believe that it will be formed. If possible the boys will be mustered into service in time to attend the encampment. Last year the regiment camped at Put-in-Bay, and had a good time.

It is the intention to make the corps one of the finest independent military organizations in the state. The boys are already well drilled, and when they have once mastered the pretty work of a signal corps they will show to splendid advantage. The uniforms are neat and attractive.

IMPORTERS ARE SORE.

They Want the Tariff Settled Without Delay.

The New York correspondent of China, Glass and Lamps, always echoing an opinion of the importers, say:

"The feeling among crockery and glassware men is despondent. As far as the importers are concerned, they anticipate no change for the better until our national legislators have finally disposed of the tariff question. Everywhere you go you hear the same thing; give us certainty as to prices, let us know what in justice we are to charge our customers for the goods which they order from us, and the conditions of trade must necessarily improve. As soon as the present state of doubt is put to an end by positive legislative action, there will be business vitality where there are uncertainty and depression."

FLOWER THIEVES

Have Already Commenced Their Depredations.

There is a fruitful field for the police if they but keep an eye upon the people who steal flowers. Although the month is yet young a number of depredations have been reported. Three boys almost ruined a lilac bush at a Third street residence, last night, and on Sixth street another bush was stripped of every flower. The thieves are not well started as yet, and the police may, by an arrest or two, suddenly end a most annoying practice.

SHORT OF SUNSHINE

Made the Week a Poor One For the Farmers.

The weather report says there was a deficiency of sunshine during the week, and as a result farmers suffered. All crops have done very well, although warmer nights would have helped the grasses. Wheat to the present has made progress, and reports from all over this section of Ohio show that the crop will be a good one. It is a settled fact that the peach crop is practically a failure. Early gardening is almost all done.

Hurt the Pole.

The telephone pole in front of the Goodwin pottery is today leaning slightly. A young lady learning to ride a bicycle ran into it yesterday afternoon. Friends rushed to her rescue, but luckily the only thing which sustained damage was the pole.

A Large Shipment.

Over 400 bails of straw came up the river yesterday for a local firm. This is the largest shipment received here for some time.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, MAY 7

WAR, famine, flood and fire are combining to make this a notable year of the dying century.

THEY say that Mr. Bryan will go abroad for a rest, but whether for himself or the American public is not made plain.

COUNCIL and Commissioner Finley deserve commendation for the splendid manner in which the business portion of the city is being kept.

THE death of the arbitration treaty is another proof that the Democratic party has kicked Mr. Cleveland into a cold and unsympathizing world.

EX-AMBASSADOR BAYARD sails from England for home tomorrow. How can he be so cruel as to leave his beloved friends and come again to a land where the people are "simple but well meaning folk."

REGULAR advertisers in the NEWS REVIEW should bear in mind that changes must be in this office the evening previous to insertion. This system not only lessens the strain the day of publication, but insures for the advertiser a much more artistic advertisement.

THE importers are stocking up for future prosperity in spite of the decision of the treasury department that the retroactive clause will be considered by it as in force. Those New York chaps know a thing or two when it is a matter of working the government.

THE gold Democrats are not appearing with much prominence in Ohio politics, nor is it at all likely that they will. The silver brethren are in the saddle, and the other fellows can plod patiently along on foot or stay at home, just as they will. No one seems to care what they do.

A YEAR ago when Mr. Cleveland went to Buzzard's bay the reporters hung upon his trail and watched his every movement. The other day he set out for the same place accompanied by Wilson and Carlisle, and the New York papers scarcely noticed it. That's the difference between being great as president and being nothing as private citizen.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

The proposed constitutional convention is causing considerable discussion, but not the amount warranted by a proposition so important. The labor organizations are a unit in its support, believing there are many things in the present constitution which should be thrown out, while Attorney General Monnett believes we should be content to plod along with the ills we have rather than fly to those we know not of. There are others who oppose the revision, but if a determined fight is made the prospects are good for success.

AN ELECTRIC SYSTEM.

The movement to connect Alliance and Salem with Canton is but another link in what will doubtless become before the end of the century a complete system of electric roads. Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania are filled with short lines which can be transformed into money makers when this great manufacturing section through which they pass feels the impetus of prosperity. Then will come the usual combination of interests, and the steam lines will have a formidable rival. That East Liverpool will derive some profit from this consolidation there can be no doubt. This place is by far too important to be shut out. It will come in time, and, if prosperity soon returns, that time will not be long.

A LEAGUE CONVENTION

Will Be Held In East End
May 17.

DELEGATES STAY TWO DAYS

A Good Program Is Now Being Prepared.
Officers Elected Last Night—Memorial
service at the Association Auditorium
Two Weeks From Sunday.

One week from next Monday the Epworth league of the Second M. E.
church will entertain the delegates to
the sub convention of this district.

The convention will be made up of
young people from Wellsville, Empire,
Toronto, and this city, and will consume
two days before its work is completed.
A lengthy but interesting program is now being prepared, and the meeting
will end with an entertainment Tuesday evening. A full list of delegates is expected, and elaborate preparations are being made for their entertainment.

The regular monthly meeting of the Epworth league of the First M. E.
church was held last night, and these
officers were elected: President,
Charles Boyce; vice presidents, A. J.
Savage, Mrs. Henderson, Miss Mattie
Caliebe, Miss Emily Baum; secretary,
Samuel Coleman; treasurer, Charles
Knowles. An enjoyable social closed
the meeting.

Secretary Charles is preparing for memorial services to be held at the association building May 23. The meeting will be addressed by Hon. W. W.
Hole, of Salem, and music will be rendered by a trained chorus of 40 voices
under the direction of Professor Harper.
An invitation will be sent to the Grand Army and the Sons of Veterans, and it is hoped they will be present. The address by Mr. Hole will be one of the features of the service.

"I can very warmly commend the

MADE A GOOD OFFER.

But R. F. Stewart Would Not Sell For $175
a Foot.

Isaac W. Knowles yesterday attempted to purchase 30 feet of the property owned by R. F. Stewart in Washington street, and although he offered $150 a foot could not buy it. Mr. Knowles is about to erect a business block on the adjoining land, and wanted the other in order to increase the size of his building. Mr. Stewart would not part with that piece but offered to sell the Grand Hotel property for $25,000 cash. Mr.

Knowles has not entirely given up the idea of obtaining the property, but it is not known that he is thinking of buying the hotel.

THE COLLEGIANS.

Tonight.

Yea, verily, and they will make glad selections are simply charming, while the instrumental performers are absolutely par excellent, their renditions having won golden opinions from crowded houses whenever and wherever they have appeared. Professor Harper has demonstrated the fact that he will be satisfied with nothing but first-class entertainments for the citizens of East Liverpool, and music lovers of the city appreciate this in the right manner—by giving him the encouragement of splen-

A LEAGUE CONVENTION

Will Be Held In East End
May 17.

DELEGATES STAY TWO DAYS

A Good Program Is Now Being Prepared.
Officers Elected Last Night—Memorial
service at the Association Auditorium
Two Weeks From Sunday.

One week from next Monday the Epworth league of the Second M. E.
church will entertain the delegates to
the sub convention of this district.

The convention will be made up of
young people from Wellsville, Empire,
Toronto, and this city, and will consume
two days before its work is completed.
A lengthy but interesting program is
now being prepared, and the meeting
will end with an entertainment Tuesday evening. A full list of delegates is expected, and elaborate preparations are being made for their entertainment.

The regular monthly meeting of the Epworth league of the First M. E.
church was held last night, and these
officers were elected: President,
Charles Boyce; vice presidents, A. J.
Savage, Mrs. Henderson, Miss Mattie
Caliebe, Miss Emily Baum; secretary,
Samuel Coleman; treasurer, Charles
Knowles. An enjoyable social closed
the meeting.

Secretary Charles is preparing for memorial services to be held at the association building May 23. The meeting will be addressed by Hon. W. W.
Hole, of Salem, and music will be rendered by a trained chorus of 40 voices
under the direction of Professor Harper.
An invitation will be sent to the Grand
Army and the Sons of Veterans, and it is hoped they will be present. The address by Mr. Hole will be one of the features of the service.

WE SMILE AUDIBLY.

The Warm Commendation of Home Mer-

"Blow your own bugle." It is at causeth us to blush spasmodically; but we have been known to bear up hero-tell, however, it is much more pleasing to have the other fellow do the blowing

They Want Games With Successful Players.

CLERKS ON THE DIAMOND

The Harker Pottery Will Play Against Dresden—Our Boys to Try It Again In Wellsville—Mercer Went Down Yesterday—Sporting News.

The East Liverpool team met last evening and received their new uniforms, gloves and bats. They will practice this evening at West End park. The team to be taken to Beaver Falls was selected, and will be Davis, Finch, catchers; Howard, McShane, pitchers; McNicol, short; Frey, first; Kennedy, second; Godwin, third; McCurran, left; C. Reark, middle; W. Carey, right.

Winnie Mercer keeps on losing games with great regularity, but at the same time is pitching good ball. Yesterday he held the Boston team down to nine hits, but couldn't win, as the Beaneaters bunched their hits and were assisted by some damaging errors on the part of the Senators. Mercer had one hit, one put out and three assists to his credit in the game.

The clerks have organized a baseball team, and as usual think they are about as good as anything in the city. They would like to meet the Phoenix club as soon as possible and arrange a game.

The Harker pottery team is a new one, and the members are desirous of meeting any pottery team in the city, the Dresden preferred. Address communications to Brigham Young, manager.

Our Boys will go to Wellsville tomorrow to play the Crescents of that city.

The East Liverpool Athletic club will camp again this year on the banks of the Tuscarawas river, and expect to leave the city July 5.

HE FELL OUT.

An Amusing Scene When a Pony Ran Away.

An amusing runaway occurred last evening in Fifth street. Two young men were driving a pony, and were conversing with two bicyclists when the pony started to run and kick. The bicyclists hurriedly got out of the way, and one of the young men fell out over the seat of the cart. The other pluckily stayed with the animal, and succeeded in getting it stopped before the old cemetery was reached, but not before the cart was badly mashed.

ANOTHER TOLL HOUSE

Is Being Built at the End of the Bridge For Emergency.

Workmen have commenced the erection of another toll house at the bridge. It will be on the Virginia side, and will be used when large crowds cross the bridge.

Work on the construction of the street railway goes rapidly forward. Track was laid to Broadway last night, and the trolley wire was at the Ohio side of the bridge. Broadway was crossed this morning, and considerable progress made.

TRIED HIS STOCKINGS.

An Amusing Exhibition Before a Diamond Store.

Yesterday afternoon a farmer entered a Diamond store and purchased a pair of stockings. The inmates of the store were considerably surprised a few seconds later, when he mounted the seat of his wagon, and coolly placing his foot on the dashboard, rolled up his trousers, and taking off his shoes and stockings, proceeded to try his new hosiery. It fit all right, and after informing the clerks in the store, he returned and put on the other stocking.

ANOTHER FIGHT.

Black Frank and Healey Will Try It Again.

It is whispered around that Black Frank and Mack Healey will fight for a purse within the next few weeks. The battle will take place some distance from the city, the managers having no desire to tempt the West Virginia authorities to action by again invading the South Side. It is understood that the money has been posted, and arrangements have all been made. The battle will be witnessed by a favored few.

On the River.

The marks at the wharf now show ten feet, nine inches and falling. But few boats passed yesterday, and very little coal went down.

Passed up—Charles Hook, Eliza, Lorena, H. K. Bedford, Virginia. Down—Joseph Cook, Ben Hur.

Glee club! tonight! Glee club!

NO FARMERS' TRUST.

It Is Denied That Such an Organization Has Been Incorporated.

Chicago, May 7.—The Farmers' Voice says: "Newspapers all over the country have been publishing an utterly foundationless story to the effect that the farmers were forming a gigantic trust in the nature of an oath-bound organization whose object, it was alleged, was to control the production and distribution of all agricultural products.

"The scene of the earlier operations of this mysterious combine was laid in New Jersey, where the 'Agriculturists' Protective association' had been duly incorporated. Many of the leading farmers of the country have written The Voice emphatically asserting entire ignorance of such a trust and indignantly protesting against the proposed combine and its purposes.

"The secretary of state of New Jersey, in response to an inquiry, said: 'I have examined the records of this office and do not find any corporation organized under the laws of this state by the name of the "Agriculturists' Protective association."'

"That is convincing enough, and it may be added there is no possibility of such a trust in the future, for while there are farmers who have no hesitancy in going into such a combination, the great mass of American agriculturists are utterly opposed to trusts and combines, believing that the law of supply and demand, if left to do its perfect work, will result in justice to all."

Tried to Reform a Woman.

Pittsburg, May 7.—Martin Gray, 40, died from the effects of a dose of laudanum, taken with suicidal intent, as shown by a letter he had written to his unfaithful second wife. His first wife died three years ago. In opposition to the advice of friends he then married Maggie Carlon, whose reputation was not good. He said his love would reform her. Eight different times he filed a suit for divorce, but each time he withdrew the charge and again began the task of reforming the woman.

Fierce Forest Fires.

Shell Lake, Wis., May 7.—Forest fires are burning fiercely in all directions, and unless rain comes soon farmers will lose their homes. The cranberry marshes and blueberry brush are all afire, and a light crop of each will be the result. Advices from Spooner say fires are raging north and west of that point and clouds of smoke obscure the sun.

Crooked Treasurer Suicides.

New Bedford, Mass., May 7.—The body of William D. Howland, treasurer of the Howland mills, the New Bedford Manufacturing company and the Rotch Spinning company, was found in the dock at the foot of North street. The place where it was found is not far from that where he was last seen alive.

Thirsted For Alcohol.

Parkersburg, W. Va., May 7.—Humphrey Lee, one of the most prominent men of Smithville, Litchie county, died from the effects of inordinate quantities of essences which he drank for the alcohol in them. Lee's death is said to have been a terrible one.

Notorious Woman Among Them.

Milwaukee, May 7.—The Theosophists in Milwaukee are greatly stirred up over the discovery that they have been entertaining the notorious Anna Odellia Diss DeBar, alias Vera Ava.

Trying to Find a Market.

Valparaiso, May 7.—The government of Chile has offered a premium of $100,000 yearly to any person or persons who may discover a new use for nitrate in large quantities.

STRUCK A STONE WALL

Charles Bauman Met With an Accident.

WAS CUT ABOUT THE HEAD

When Riding on the Fifth Street Sidewalk His Wheel Hit an Obstruction and He Lost Consciousness—Other Mishaps to Wheelmen.

Charles Bauman met with a serious accident last evening about 9:30 o'clock, while riding a bicycle.

He was riding his wheel in Sixth street, and when he turned into Monroe decided to go down the sidewalk to Fifth. All went well until he had crossed the alley, when his front wheel ran into an obstruction and he was thrown with considerable force against the stone wall surrounding the property of D. E. McNicol.

Patsy King, John Mannypenny and Garfield Adams were standing nearby and went to his assistance. They found him unconscious and bleeding from two large wounds in his head. They at once attempted to restore him to consciousness, while a messenger was dispatched to his home. He was conveyed to his home in a buggy and a physician summoned, but it was fully half an hour after the accident occurred before he knew anything. Several stitches were taken in the cuts, and today he is resting easy. The bicycle was not damaged to any great extent.

A number of accidents occurred in the streets last night. A little girl fell from her wheel in Fourth street, and went home crying, but was not badly hurt. Two wheelmen collided in Sixth street, and one received a hard fall. When a party of wheelmen, half a dozen or more, were turning into Fourth street one had a fall, and was bruised not a little.

Miss Cora Allen and Miss Stella George had a bicycle collision last evening in Fifth street. The young ladies were not injured, but the bicycles show marks of the affair.

EPIDEMIC IS DEPARTING.

Not So Many Cases of Measles as Last Week.

Physicians express the belief that the epidemic of measles is losing its force, and that a few weeks will see but a few isolated cases. The East End continues to suffer, and there are still a great many cases on the North Side, but in the central part of the city, where the disease raged so long and where so many children suffered, there is a decrease so noticeable as to excite comment. It has been years since the city was affected so seriously, and perhaps never has there been a time when so many deaths resulted from measles. In some cases the patients died from other causes, but measles was their first illness.

HALF A DOZEN CANDIDATES

Will Want to Fill the Office of Mayor.

They were talking politics on the street uptown last night when one of the party, perhaps one of the best informed politicians in the city, said:

"The fight for mayor next spring is going to be a hot one. I know now of six candidates who are quietly working the corners, and heaven only knows how many more will be out before nomination day. I believe the fight will narrow down to two or three, and those men are already in the field."

THREE DAYS IN A STRETCH.

That Is How the Firemen Will Take Their Vacations.

The fire department members have a new way of taking their vacation. Each man gets 15 days a year off duty, but instead of taking it all at one time they each takes three days in his regular turn. There are eight firemen and it takes over six months for all to get their vacation by the new mode. The firemen like the arrangement much better than taking the 15 days at one time.

A Good Lecture.

Reverend Bower, of Wellsville, delivered an interesting lecture in Bradshaw hall, last evening, entitled, "Bound With Chains." The lecture treated upon the moral condition of the country, and also the condition of the state and church. A large audience was present.

Quiet In East End.

Officer Moore is determined to keep the East End in the best of order. Last evening every boy who was making too much noise was sent home.

A. W. SCOTT, Architect.

To my patrons, and those contemplating building, permit me to state: I have made plans and constructed the building for more than three times the number of any other one Architect in this country during my nine years practice in this city, and in each case devoted careful study that I might not cause you to expend one dollar where it was not required, and yet give you a building free from cracked or settled walls, both interior and exterior, free from unsightly cast iron plates on the side of your building, or cumbersome "hog chains" extending down in your finish d rooms to support a roof, as some are in this city, constructed by those professing to know better. I guarantee you a saving in each building of many times what the plans cost you, and the most substantial of structures. We profit by other people's mistakes. We study. We are progressive. We put strength where it belongs. It was the unlearned and illiterate Egyptians who constructed their buildings with 9 to 14 foot thick walls, regardless of size of building, because their forefathers did the same. Science has taught practical architects that necessity demands practical economy. We are up to date on any style building you want. Make you blue print copies of your plans. Type written specifications. Duplicate or triplicate copies when desired. Make you neat sketches of all contemplated building, free of charge, as all first class architects do. We charge you a reasonable compensation for our work, which we allow you to determine, while with some "half a loaf is better than none." Beware of the man who proposes to make your plans for nothing. Somebody's going to pay dear for them in the end. We are too busy to announce all the leading points on this subject. We are completing the 23d contract for plans since January, '97. Call and see me.

STRUCK A STONE WALL

Charles Bauman Met With an Accident.

WAS CUT ABOUT THE HEAD

When Riding on the Fifth Street Sidewalk His Wheel Hit an Obstruction and He Lost Consciousness—Other Mishaps to Wheelmen.

Charles Bauman met with a serious accident last evening about 9:30 o'clock, while riding a bicycle.

He was riding his wheel in Sixth street, and when he turned into Monroe decided to go down the sidewalk to Fifth. All went well until he had crossed the alley, when his front wheel ran into an obstruction and he was thrown with considerable force against the stone wall surrounding the property of D. E. McNicol.

Patsy King, John Mannypenny and Garfield Adams were standing nearby and went to his assistance. They found him unconscious and bleeding from two large wounds in his head. They at once attempted to restore him to consciousness, while a messenger was dispatched to his home. He was conveyed to his home in a buggy and a physician summoned, but it was fully half an hour after the accident occurred before he knew anything. Several stitches were taken in the cuts, and today he is resting easy. The bicycle was not damaged to any great extent.

A number of accidents occurred in the streets last night. A little girl fell from her wheel in Fourth street, and went home crying, but was not badly hurt. Two wheelmen collided in Sixth street, and one received a hard fall. When a party of wheelmen, half a dozen or more, were turning into Fourth street one had a fall, and was bruised not a little.

Miss Cora Allen and Miss Stella George had a bicycle collision last evening in Fifth street. The young ladies were not injured, but the bicycles show marks of the affair.

If you fail to recognize yourself in the group don't be offended, for if you are a good dresser, an economical dresser, a smart buyer, you'r given credit for dealing here, anyway, besides there's a certain individuality about our clothing which you can distinguish at a glance, a recherche distinction which is proof against imitation. Note the exquisit rounding of the lapels, the carefully worked buttonholes, the double staying of the pockets, the neatness of the collar, the graceful fit, and note the lasting qualities as compared with clothing bought elsewhere and worn an equal time. Make your calculation--see if ours isn't the cheapest by far, see if ours isn't the only satisfactory clothing without competition in this market.
